Your Alma Mater . . .

IN PRAISE OF ALMA MATER

To Alma Mater sing we now;
To thee all loyalty we vow.
In knowledge, faith, humility . . .
Of thee we would be worthy.
Thy motto may we all obey
Nil sine numine,
May we thy children learn to pray,
And walk with Alma Mater.

When from these halls we must depart, Nurtured in each grateful heart Will be the warmth of friendly days Enjoyed along thy pathways. When on our ears thy name shall fall, It will be a herald Trumpet's call To hail thee college queen of all, Oh well loved Alma Mater.

The mind's eye sees the campus green,
The mind's ear hears a sound serene.
A cherished hymn from bell Tower rings;
Remembered be thy blessings,
Throughout our lives in accents clear
The chords of memory draw us near
To sing again a song sincere
In praise of Alma Mater.

MR. J. H. ALLRED

Since earliest times philosophers have taught the basic principles of human relationships, have emphasized the qualities that go to make up a well-liked, agreeable personality—the qualities that mean most in association with others.

There has never been a time when kindness, unselfishness, and consideration for others were not considered essential qualities.

Faith, Hope and Love- These three- and the greatest of these is Love.

These words stress what is the most vital and characteristic of Christian virtues— love of one's fellowmen.

It is with deep admiration and affection that the senior class of 1960, dedicate our yearbook to one who has taught these qualities by precept and example as a beloved teacher a patient counsellor

and a sympathetic friend

"in his own words whose only failure, if he has failed, is that he has loved his students too much:"

DR. JEROME C. SMITH

OLD VOYAGER

by WALTER BLACKSTOCK

(Associate professor of English, High Point College)

His landlocked dreams were rainbow-tides that ran: Of clippers cutting ebony and spume Through silver shatterings, a caravan Of fractured waves. Always he saw the bloom Of hyacinth-weather turning ships to sea. He saw Orion and Arcturus burn For mariners who steered toward Napoli; He watched their transports leave, and then return.

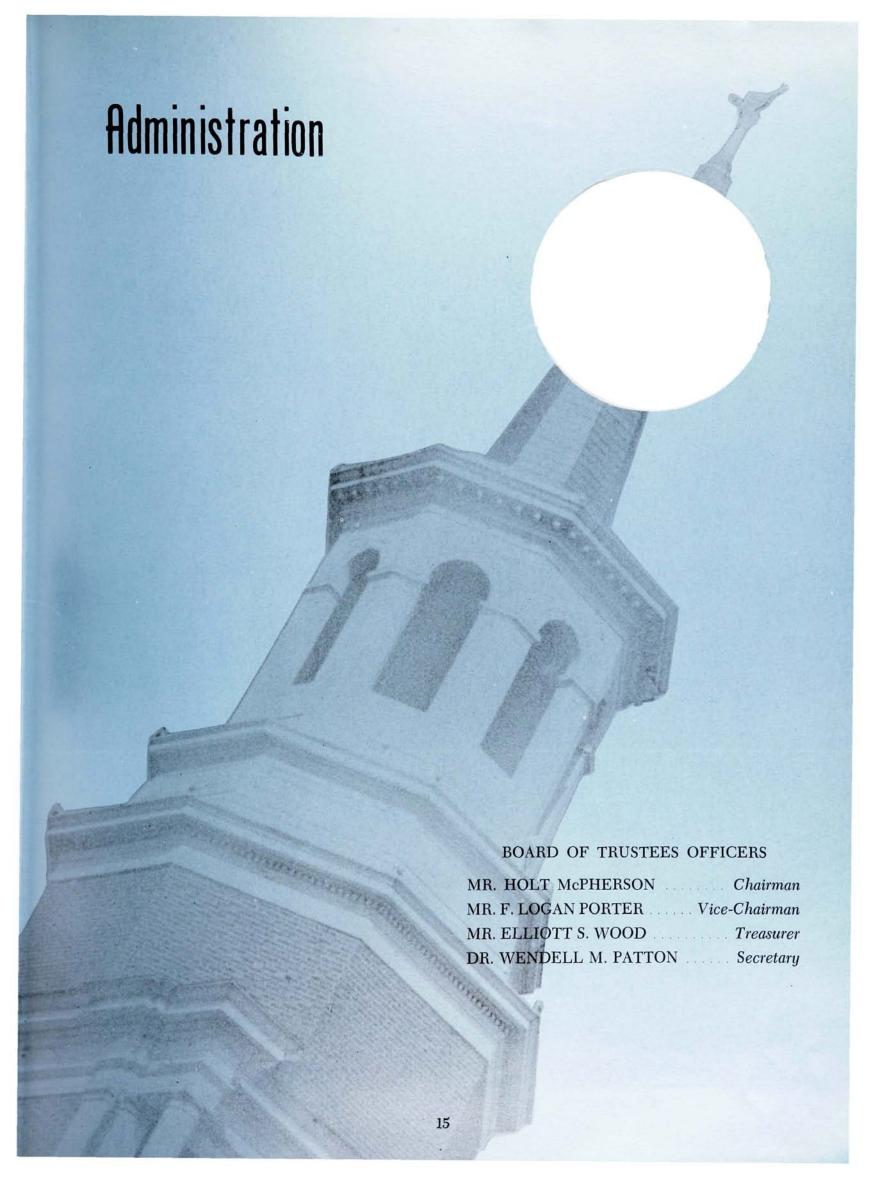

He lived for one last voyaging — but one — When he would sail beyond the Pleiades — Past Sirius — to find eternities Of Hope bright-garlanded around the sun. He dreamed of calm, of everlasting blue: The port was known — the reckoning was true.

The college administration sets forth the goals and objectives of High Point College and serves to co-ordinate all phases of college life.

The Christian liberal arts college is faced with the responsibility of supplying the morality that is needed to harness and use, for the good, the technology of the modern world.

The administration is striving to accept this challange by replacing words with concrete action and positive programs showing results.

The ultimate goal is not only to make High Point College a "Christian College for Discriminating Students," but to make High Point College a strong contributor of the necessary leadership for creating a better world.

The faculty, staff, and student body has experienced a singular honor in welcoming Dr. WEN-DELL M. PATTON, President of High Point College.

Dr. Patton holds the B.S. and M.S. Degrees from the University of Georgia and the PH.D. Degree from Purdue University.

Dr. Patton's experience has included such work as Assistant Registrar, Director of Admissions, Business Manager, Teacher, and Academics Department Head in various colleges. He has served in the U. S. Air Force and in positions of management in the business field.

His experience and training, along with his interest in young people, should provide an effective leadership for the college.

Dr. Patton and family

It comes to us suddenly that the years have flown by and the time has come to step forward out of the known into the unknown. We know not what the future holds for us, but we do know that we leave a part of ourselves here on the campus and take part of our college with us.

Few of us have done our best. None of us are yet educated. But—if we have become acquainted with the treasures of human thought—if we have the burning desire for our share of the legacy of all creative thinking—

And if we see the possibilities for continual growth as a thoughtful and reasoning person—

Then we are ready for this step that is not the ending, but the beginning.

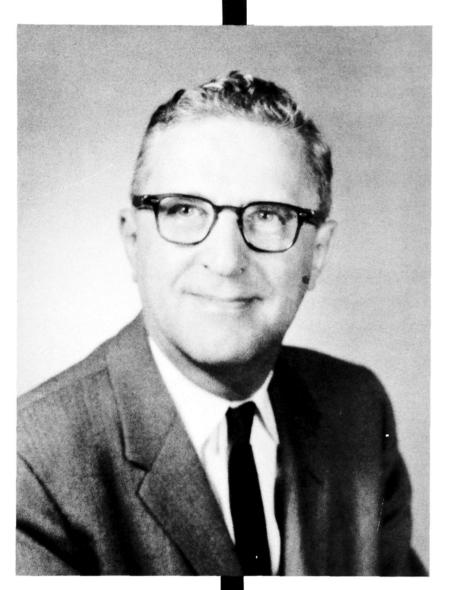

May God bless and keep you.

Wendell M. Patton

Your Deans...

We are proud of our students at High Point College. Their spirit of friendliness and cooperation is a challenge to the faculty to give the best of their abilities to academic and individual development. This creation of an environment favorable to learning is the basis of college experience and should give our graduates the preparation they need for a mature and fruitful life in the years ahead.

TO THE STUDENTS OF HIGH POINT COLLEGE

May I take this opportunity to express my appreciation to you for the spirit of cooperation you have shown during the year and to make a wish... that you may always remember the campus, the buildings, and the many experiences you have shared here at High Point College . . . but most of all, may you remember the people—your teachers and your classmates—among whom you have lived for four years.

Staff

High Point College depends on an able staff to "see it through." Both faculty and students are greatly indebted to these people for accurate and co-operative service. A salute is long over due to the members of our unfailing staff.

MR. STAN BROADWAY Alumni Executive Secretary

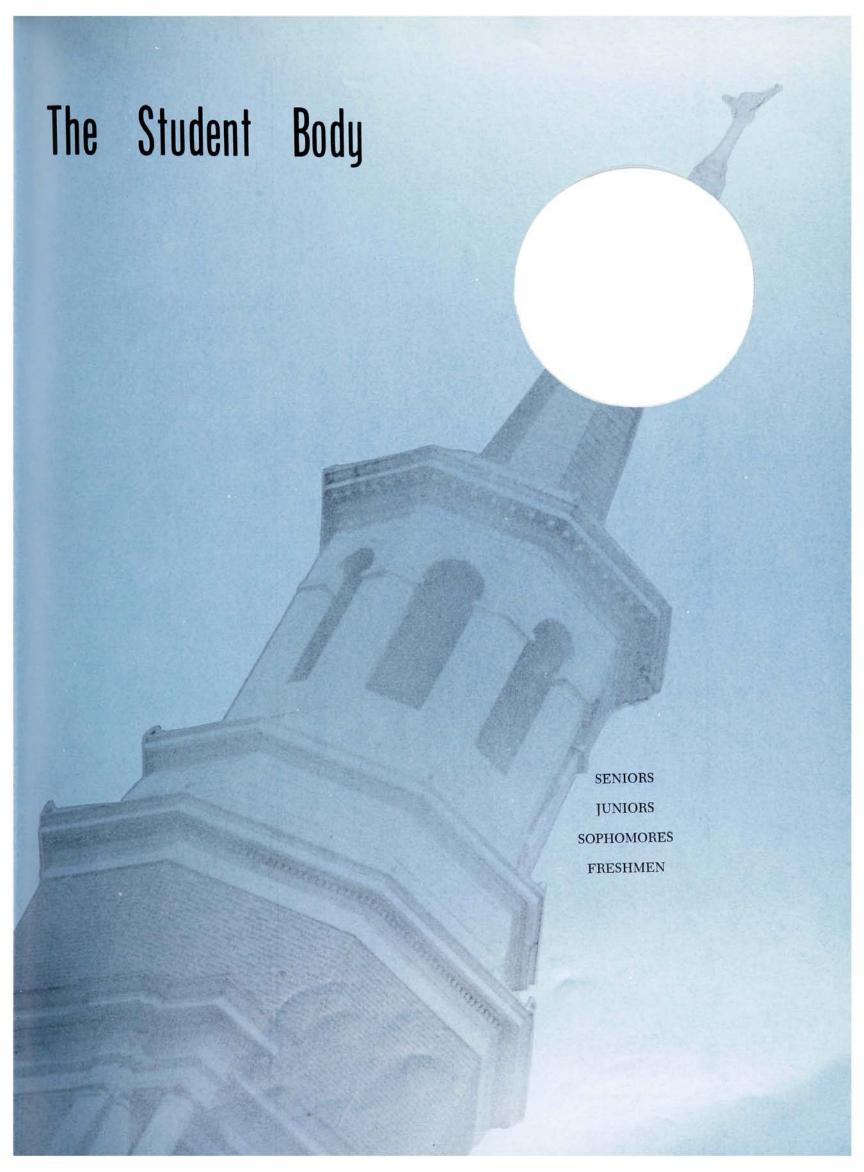

We Pay Tribute...

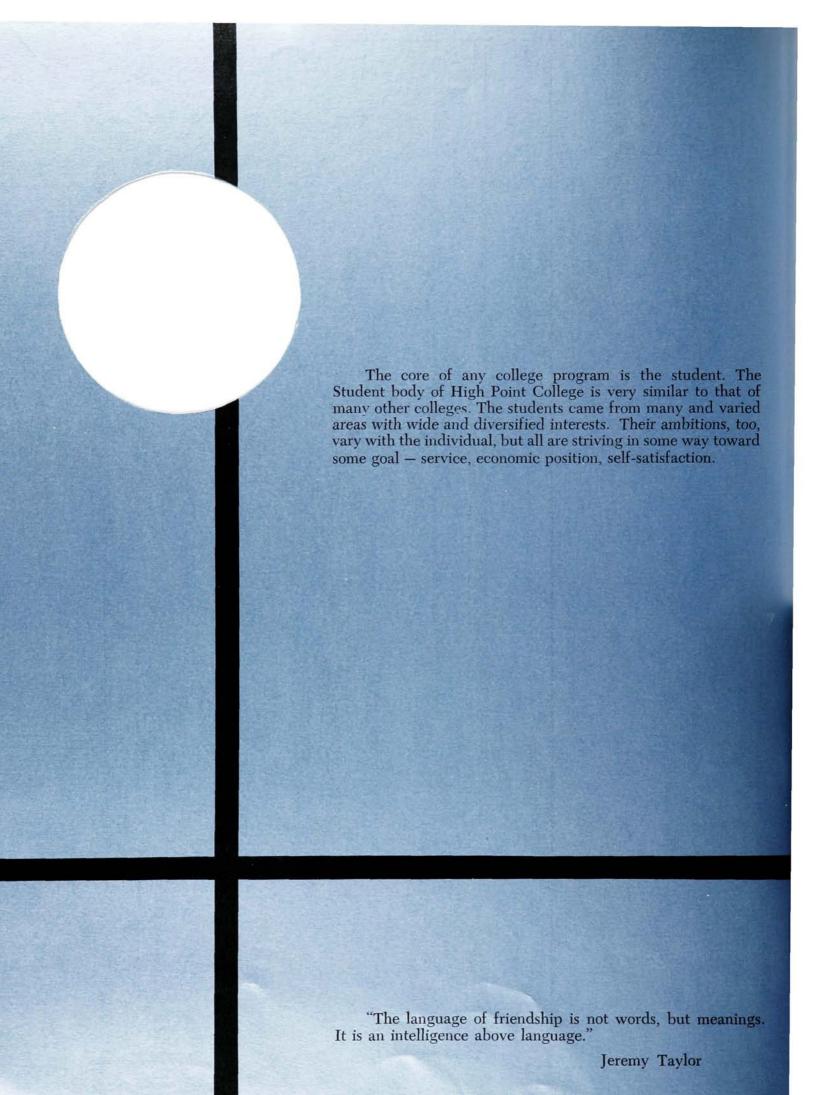

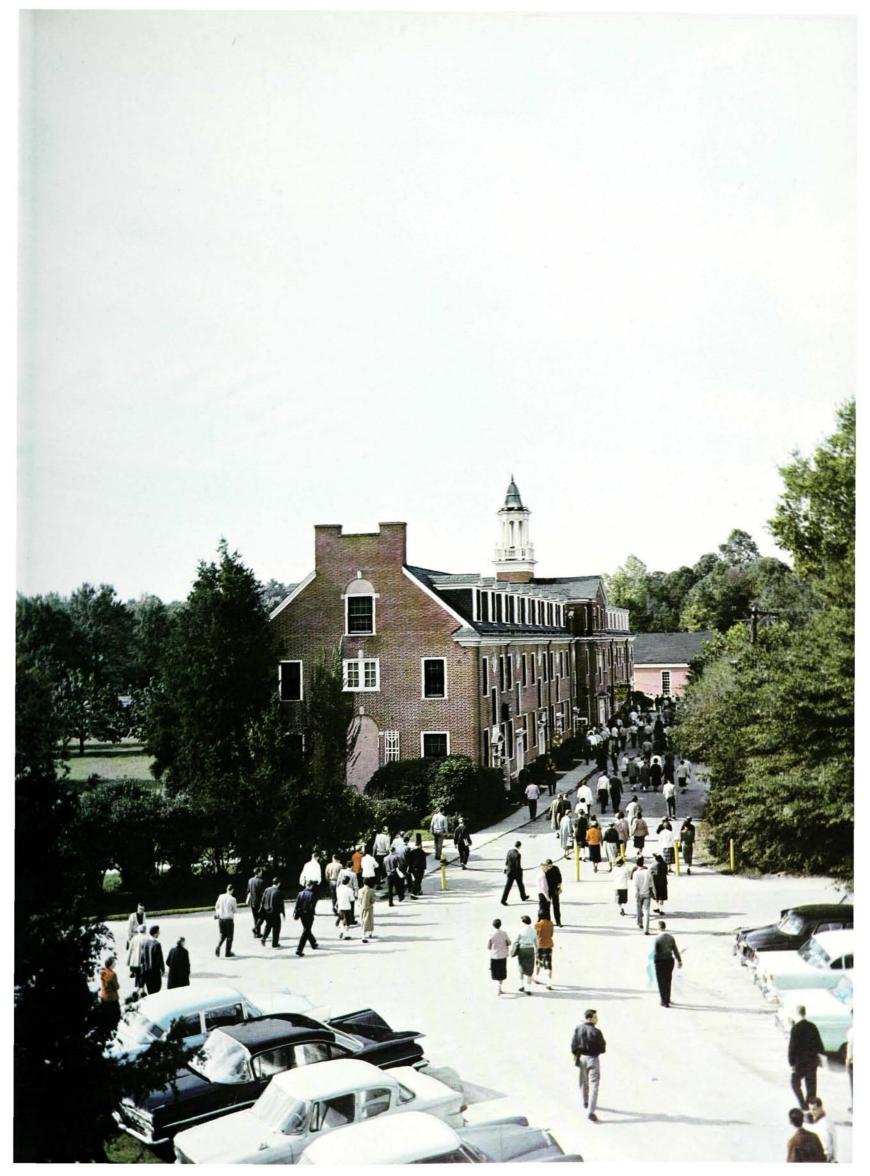

For many, many reasons, which words are powerless to express fully, we are grateful for the rich opportunities we share in knowing, respecting and loving Mrs. Koontz.

Behind the scenes of our daily lives are vitally essential people who are often overlooked. Because the senior class is aware of this fact, we have chosen this space in our yearbook to pay tribute to one of the most beloved individuals on our campus, Mrs. Frances Koontz. To us, Mrs. Koontz is one of the friendliest, most understanding persons we have ever known. She is definitely a friend of every student and is interested in our problems, welfare and happiness. With her endless sweet smile and friendly word, Mrs. Koontz is always there behind the counter, ready to console us in moments of depression. Her life consists of living for others and she delights in sharing our happiness and success with us. In appreciation for the consolations and reprimands—the profound care and interest—the willingness to advise and the determination to instill in us a feeling of responsibility—for the essential she plays in our lives at High Point College, we acknowledge our own Mrs. Koontz, whom we all dearly love.

SENIORS

As the senior year ends, so a senior's life begins. From a mere number on a college roll, the individual emerges to share his responsibilities in the world.

Many memories of High Point College will be cherished forever. The late hours of study and the tests taken may soon be forgotten, but the laughter of friends will always remain.

To the senior, graduation is but the threshold which leads to the future . . . and the future is as close as tomorrow.

As the senior ventures on to a new and greater school, that of life, he will take with him many fond memories and expectant hopes for the future.

AH . . .!

The Junior year is really an exciting step on that seemingly endless ladder of college life. The junior has finally reached the place where only the Seniors are left to over-lord him. He has climbed to where he thinks, at least, that he "knows the ropes" and can hand out valuable information to all under classmen concerning crip courses, professors, etc.

This is also his great year for honors. The Junior Marshals are selected and installed and have a very confusing time learning how to check the role in assembly. The big wait is here too, to see who will be tapped for the "Order of the Lighted Lamp."

Step by step he counts days, weeks, and holidays awaiting those final examinations and praying, in the meantime, that he will have enough quality points and hours to be considered a Senior the following year. Maybe he'll reach the top of the ladder after all!

This was a year for perfecting our bridge game . . . for helping the freshmen along the narrow road we had to come . . . for breathing a sigh of relief that we no longer have to wear those beanies.

It was a year for realizing we need not spend every night in the library to pass . . . for learning how to joke with certain professors and realizing they are friends . . . for taking impossible subjects, psychology and education . . . for learning Chaucer and becoming great speakers.

This was the year for calming down . . . for deciding on our majors . . . for achieving a greater degree of seriousness . . . and for gaining a little more maturity as we begin the second year of our college career.

We have entered a new, supersonic world. It is a whirlwind of lengthy lectures, purple-and-white beanies, roommates, demerits, signin books, coffee, letters from home, and regular campus chaos. Unfortunately, some of us have met with grave disasters. We learned how to take notes that we later could not read, how to cram for an exam and still flunk, how to lose meal tickets, and how to over-cut classes.

On the other hand, together, we have made great accomplishments. Our class began the annual custom of chasing the sophomore president so as to retrieve our rights to go bareheaded (i. e., minus beanies). On December fourth, we gathered in the cafeteria for an informal dance which proved quite successful.

Our education has stretched to encompass rules for Freshmen composition, the biological phases of mitosis, discriminant formulas, and the important event which took place in 476 A.D.

We also mastered the method of double-short-sheeting beds, taking freezing showers with a grin, and wearing un-ironed clothes.

College learning consists of more than just books and classes. Much of a student's learning comes from his associations in campus organizations. These organizations provide opportunities for leadership, fellowship, self-expression, responsibility, evaluation, and the exchange of ideas.

Among the organizations on campus are those promoting governmental experience, service, religious emphasis, professional interests, and creative expression. Other organizations are dedicated to promoting higher academic standards.

Whatever the objective of the individual organization may be, it is an essential part of college life.

"Service to a just cause rewards the worker with more real happiness and satisfaction than any other venture of life."

Student Government Association

The H. P. C. Student Government Association has enjoyed a prosperous school year under the new provisions set up during the previous year. The Executive Committee began the year with a big orientation week followed by successful programs for the State SGA Convention, Homecoming, and May Day.

The three branches, the Legislative, Judiciary, and Executive Council have led the student body through the year in a democratic manner and have made the three branches workable and beneficial.

CHARLES R. JOHNSON Chief Justice

The Judiciary Council is the top rung in the Judicial branch of the S. G. A. at High Point College. It follows the principles of law and procedure that are the American heritage from Anglo-Saxon history—the heritage that has given us such legal principles as the right of trial, double jeparody, right of attorney, and the now famous Fifth Amendment. All persons accused of offenses are innocent until proven guilty and the burden of proof falls upon the prosecution—the Prosecutor for the Judiciary Council is Ross Smith, from the boys' dorm. Accurate records are kept of the proceedings by the Clerk of Court and Recorder, Alice Swetland, from the girls' dorm. The other members of the Judiciary Council are Ted Brazzell, freshman class; Jimmy Edwards, sophomore class; Larry Wheeless, junior class; Roby Walls, boys' dorm; Jean Thomas, girls' dorm; and K. M. Vestal and Eileene McIlvaine, day students representatives.

Last year, with the passage of the Statutory Code, the Judiciary Council was given more dignity, strength, and prestige. The need for a Penal Code is evident, and by the end of this year such a code may be drawn up to complete the jurisprudence, authority, and stature of the Judiciary Council and the two lower courts, the Dormitory Councils. Then we will have a more democratically powerful judicial system—then we will have a more perfect Student Government Association.

Senate

The school year of 1959-1960 finds the Senate and the House of Representatives busily at work with the business of the Student Government Association.

Committees were set up at the beginning of the year to investigate the technicalities of the Constitution, and to evaluate the Orientation Program.

The Student Government Association has operated the Student Center on a trial basis this year.

In the legislature, bills are presented, debated, and voted upon by the body in session in the best interest of the students. Committees are constantly being set up to investigate different areas of our college life to make this a better college and to have a more effective Student Government.

Women's Dormitory Council

Being a member of the Dormitory Council for the Resident Halls for Women is one of the greatest responsibilities, as well as priviledges a girl might experience while in college.

Being elected to the Council is in itself an honor. It symbolizes the first of the resident women in the members of the council to be just and sincere in their duties.

With their duties in mind, the Council of the 1959-60 school year has put into effect some ideas for more comfortable and convenient dormitory living. New handbooks with several revised rules were issued at the beginning of the year. A demerit system is now very successfully in operation as well as a new "sign-out" method. A standard method of posting messages and telephone calls is also being used.

When the Dormitory Council Advisor, the House Mothers and the members of the Dormitory Council have fulfilled their duties, a successful year of dormitory living is evident.

Commuters

We are proud to say that one of the largest organizations on campus is the Day Student Organization. The group is composed of all students who commute to and from college daily. Quite a few of these students drive cars, some ride buses, and there are a few who have no parking problem at all—they walk.

Many of the day students are born and bred High Pointers, but there are those who travel to class at High Point College from Winston-Salem, Salisbury, and Madison

Membership in this organization is automatic, and we boast the number of our group as 445 students.

1959-60 marked the fourth year on the High Point College campus for the Westminster Fellowship, the Presbyterian student organization. Through service projects, participation in the religious program of the college, and other activities, Westminster has continued to demonstrate that it has a place on campus.

Westminster meets twice a month at the home of its sponsors. Meetings feature inspiring anr enlightening programs and discussions of topics of importance to Christian students. Programs are followed by periods of fellowship. Students of all denominations are welcome to attend the meetings and take part in the activities of the Fellowship.

Methodist Student fellowship

If fellowship, worship, study, fun and guidance can constitute the essentials for a community of students away from home, this, then, has been the main function of the Methodist Student Fellowship in our college community. It has been the desire of this organization to reach the Methodist students in a way that the local church is unable to do during the college years.

The Methodist Student Fellowship on our campus is closely connected with other student movements throughout the state. This year members have taken a greater interest in conferences within the state organization. In past years the group has met twice a month, but this vear with increased interest and attendance it has successfully met every Wedneseday to establish a stronger bond of fellowship.

Alpha Delta Theta

Service, leadership, and friendship are three words synomymous with Alpha Delta Theta. These are our guiding principles as sisters in the service of God . . . The highlights of the year 1959-60 include a very successful pledge training program. The outstanding pledge of this class, chosen by the girls, was Louise Whitely. Mrs. Ed Millis, who has been a true friend for many years, was initiated along with over 40 new members . . . A large number of our girls enjoyed a week-end retreat at Millbrook before Thanksgiving vacation, when we had as our guest, Mrs. Justin Haruyama . . . On Alpha Delta Theta's list of services were, dorm devotions, volunteer for work for the TB society, and entertaining at the Presbyterian Home . . . Another year is near the end, and we are sure that the Alpha Delta Theta will always have a special meaning to those of us who have been sisters in the service of God.

Discussion groups are an important part of Alpha Delta Theta.

Financing a yearbook is an important and difficult task. Careful planning, hard labor, and endless hours of worry, are all necessary to "make ends meet." Copy writing, too, is a tedious job and takes more time than one realizes. It is most difficult to know what to write, and even more difficult to have it in on time because of fear of: "Is the grammar correct? Is this what the organization wants? Will it be enough words or too many to fill the copy space?" The Sports Editor has a task catching up with the track man to get his pictures, and seeing that those all important basketball shots are captured by the camera.

Without our typists this book would not go to press. They play an all important part in its making. To these and the entire staff, I wish to express my deep appreciation for their kind patience and their part played in producing the

The Hi-Po Staff

Smells of fresh paint and coffee mingled as the HI-PO staff settled in its new office in the Student Center. Through the year shelves were built and a layout table constructed, and the office became equipped to produce a newspaper.

But it was the editorial staff which made the office into the home of a newspaper with their late hours spent there. As the air got heavy with pipe and cigarette fumes, the coffee got cold, and the editors got sleepier, the copy was assembled, typed, corrected and laid out. After a last minute search for three more inches of copy or a missing ad, an issue of the HI-PO was put to bed for volume 34 and the staff wearily departed to put themselves to bed.

A few days and several trips to the printer's later, a neat chronicle and commentary on life at High Point College is in the hands of the students. A few words of praise or censure and it all begins again for those who have made volume 34 of the HI-PO "the voice of the students."

It is the desire of the staff that the HI-PO maintain an integral position in the lives of the student body. As the year ends and volume 34 is put to bed for the last time, it is the sincere hope of the HI-PO staff that his volume has been "the voice of the students," and that it has in some way served to stimulate the students, and to bring about a better community for the growth of the student body of High Point College.

The Calvin C. Wiley Chapter of the Student National Educational Association (formerly the Future Teachers of America, F. T. A.) has one of the largest memberships in its history. This fine organization of prospective teachers meet monthly to discuss with various guests speakers, some of the problems encountered in the teaching profession. Under its new faculty advisor Dr. Dan Cooke the Chapter has made very good progress in helping students and the College itself.

The state convention of high school student N. E. A. members met here in November with the H.P.C. Chapter as its host. Students from this chapter also traveled to Raleigh in November to the State Convention. This was a great success and many valuable discussions were held.

This chapter with its nearly 100 members has as its goals — To improve the welfare and competence of its teachers, to attract capable students to the teaching profession, and to aid in building the educational program needed for our young Americans.

Physical Education Majors' Club

The Physical Education Major's Club now in its third year has become one of the strongest student organizations on the campus of High Point College. We aid and assist the students in preparing for a career in physical education. Our organization has a strong membership that holds regular meetings throughout the school year. We have various projects going that will help us as well as our college and Physical Education Department. You will find us during the varsity games selling drinks, refreshments, and programs.

Under the very capable guidance of the High Point College Physical Education Department and the directing of Dr. Gil Hertz our club is slated to become one of the top organizations on our campus. Through our projects we help the college and through our meetings we help the physical education majors and minors to become more aware of their duties and obligations as teachers and instructors.

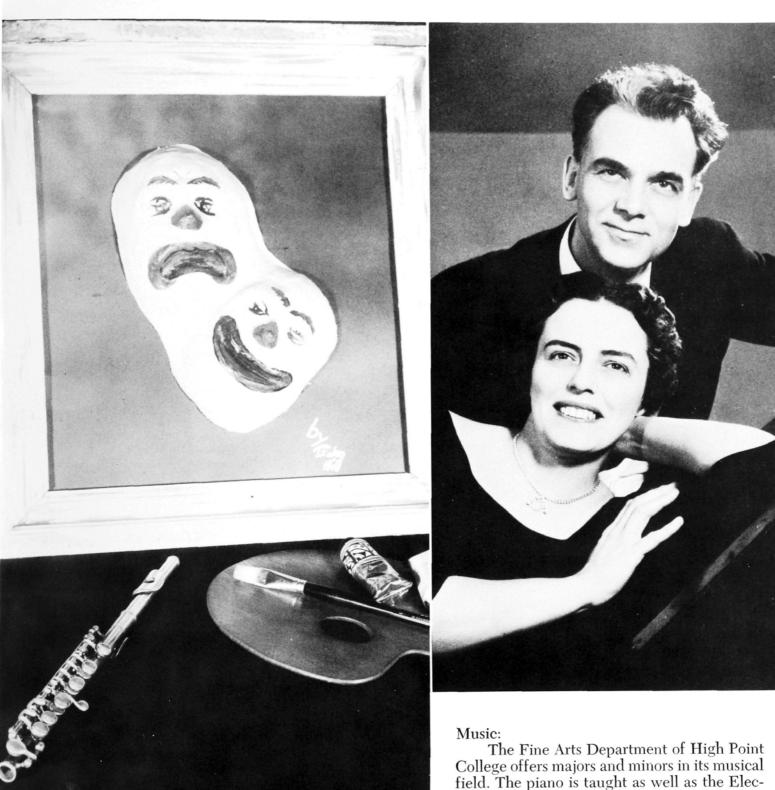

Under the fine direction of Mr. Raiford Porter the Art Department is fast becoming a department of major emphasis, with the introducation of a weekly Ceramics Class and, another first, with a new Sculpture Class. This department now gives the students a medium for expressing their artistic talents plus classes in art for the teacher and instructor.

On the Air:

With a weekly broadcast program over a local radio station (WHPE) and many classes of speech fundamentals and advanced speaking, the students have a fine outlet for developing their interest in announcing, speaking, acting, and program directing.

The Fine Arts Department of High Point College offers majors and minors in its musical field. The piano is taught as well as the Electric Hammond Organ. The competent students get a chance to play at recitals and practical experience in providing music for the weekly assembly. The Fine Arts Department also offers vocal music studies as well as instrumental concerts:

The Community Concert Series in cooperation with the Fine Arts Department of High Point College brings this year a fine variety of well known concert artists. These concerts are held in the H.P.C. Memorial Auditorium during the school year. This variety of unusual talent serves to enrich the culture of the students of H.P.C. as well as the High Point Community.

Chapel Choir

The Chapel Choir, having been organized in September, is one of the newest organizations on campus. Its purpose is to furnish anthems for chapel.

We spent first semester in organizing and maturing. "We are very mature, just ask Mr. Fryhover."

We joined the Concert Choir and the band to present the Christmas Concert to the student body in assembly and a public audience in the evening. The experiences helped us in making our performances during the second semester.

What we lack in experience, we hope to overcome with enthusiasm.

Concert Choir

This year we changed names — from the A Cappella Choir to the Concert Choir. The organization remains the same — the work, the play, the excitement of concerts, the jokes, the laughter, the togetherness.

We will all remember – the "Easter Egg"; our rich uncle; our "family," our travelogue, "Has anybody got a pair of mittens?" The new camera, "Where did he get the money?"; the tickets waiting for us at Radio City.

To those of us in the choir, it is not just an organization to which we belong. It is something very special, which we leave with regret and remember with happiness.

COLLEGE PLAYERS' MUSICAL COLORFUL, WELL EXECUTED

"Guys and Dolls" based on a story and characters by Daman Ruyan, won acclaim in two extensive Broadway runs. A plot based on parallel love affairs centers around a big time gambler, a prudish Salvation Army worker, a dice game operator and a night club singer.

The Tower Players charmed a responsive audience with their acting, singing, and dancing. The 1959-1960 production, one of the best of recent years was directed by Jane DeSpain. The Orchestra rehearsed by Dr. Lew J. Lewis and directed by J. Fryhover added to the glamour of the production. The choreography was also directed by J. Fryhover.

was also directed by J. Fryhover.
"I Love You A Bushel And A Peck," "I'll Know When My Love Comes Along," "If I Were A Bell," and "Take Back Your Mink," were several

song hits from the production.

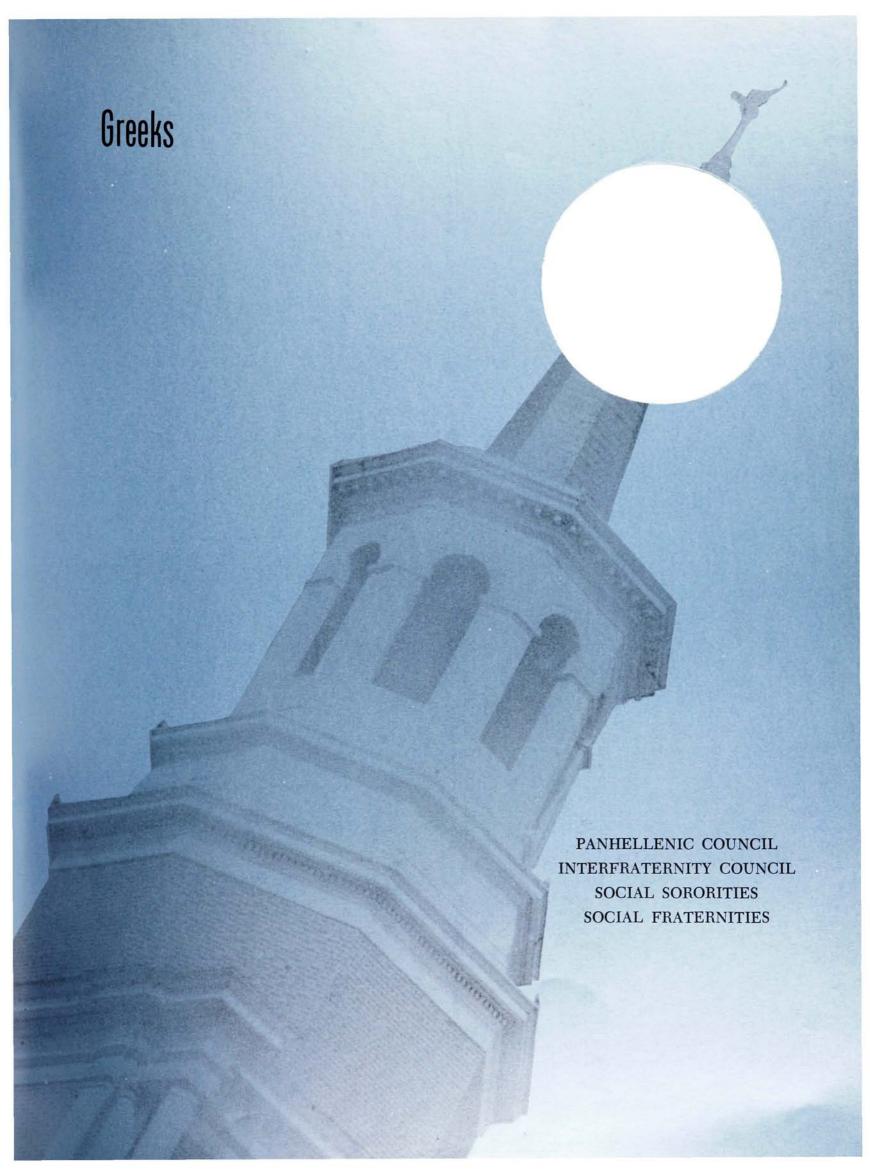

MUSICAL BY TOWERS PLAYERS CALLED GREAT ENTERTAINMENT

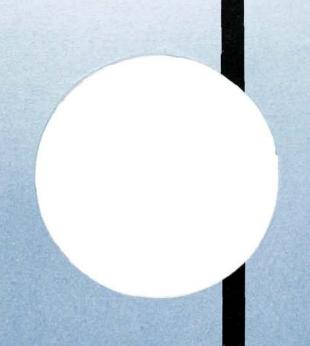

"Girl Crazy" tells the story of Danny, a New York playboy who is exiled to Arizona by his father to forget girls. But Danny meets Molly, who handles the mail delivery for the area, and falls in love with her. He develops a run down range into a dude establishment, complete with gambling room and night club.

In the 1958-1959 production, the Tower Players reveal a large reservoir of student talent, for Girl Crazy sparkles with colorful costumes, gay lighting, fancy sets, pretty girls, husky cowboys, and a chorus line of can-can girls. The show was under the direction of Jane DeSpain. John Smith supervised the choreography, Raiford Porter designed the sets, and J. Fryhover directed the music. "Embraceable You," and "I Got Rhythm" were among the song hits of the production.

Cherished memories of Kappa Delta will live in our hearts forever. These souvenirs of beauty enlighten the moments that life's bounty holds. Here today and remembered tomorrow, these enraptured thoughts will pass through our minds even though the twilight of life is slowly dimming our memory.

Our white rose, the beloved symbol of purity and honor, holds our own story enveloped within its folds. The day we became pledges is the day the bud of the rose materializes. This day brings a glimpse of the happiness that will be ours tomorrow as the bud matures. Through work, care and love, the bad is finally a rose in full bloom. Our hearts have been passed into the full bloom of maturity and Sisterhood. The dew drops on the rose are the personality gems of each Kappa Delta.

Forever striving to do that which is right and true, we, the members of Kappa Delta, have found the key to the future through love, honor, beauty, and truth.

Our many memories of cherished moments in 1959-1960

In Scholarship, Brotherhood, Fellowship, and Determination, the Iota-Phi Zeta Chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha initiated the academic year of 1959. Perhaps no other year in our campus history has been more unique and successful. Who can ever forget that hectic autumn and the tipped-over punch bowl at Rick's ultra-Bohemian party where anything could have happened and probably did! Remember the way we sheered on our dauntless eleven? Although we narrowly missed the A.P. polls, we finished confident that Brothers Wright and Adams were a sure bet for All American honors, and if not, at least All Southeast. How about that steak fry, where everyone had too much steak but a great time was had by all. Right Yates? Most of us agreed that the steak was almost as good as Mrs. Wright's!

At last the gun was sounded and formal rush was on. We shook so many hands and listened to so many unbearable jokes, (we didn't even cut in the lunch line. At final count, we had twenty-two, and we must confess that they were our pride and joy. Ridiculous, dumb, and at times even obnoxious, our pledges were still tops. Under the stress and strain of such totalatarian actions perpetrated against them, by the likes and laughs of Brothers Kimbro, Stephens, and Routh, they soon learned to work hard, laugh only with the crowd, and keep their mouths Admist all the frolic and harassment of autumn, we were able to give due congratulations to Brothers Wright and Johnson on being elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities and attaining a berth in the Top Ten polls. Also, to Brother Dale Brown, that double barreled cowboy from Wyoming, our SGA Treasurer who never forgets a figure. Mr. Brown also had the good fortune of pinning Miss Dorothy Chadwick. Brother Brown was further distinguished when he was elected a Junior Marshal along with Brothers Short and Yates.

The pinnings of Brothers Van Auken and Wright were especially appreciated in regard to the two fine sweethearts we were proud to claim Miss Jane Lloyd and Miss Bobbie Shuford respectfully.

Ah yes, the amours of Spring were with us throughout the year. Wedding bells chimed for Brother David Howard and also oiled up for Brother Keith Martin, our suave Washington Exec., who is expected to make the march any day now. Brother Johnson and Miss Kathy Traywick are also on their mark.

With the summer of '60 knocking in our door, the chapter has decided, like the Republicans and Democrats, to hold a summer convention. Our convention will be at Myrtle Beach. With love to Thompson in regards to C. T. and Mike, our convention organizers, we close by saying, we shall see you where the sea is blue, the sand white, and the beverage cold.

Tau Kappa Epsilon

DELTA KAPPA CHARTER CHARTERED 1899

Tau Kappa Epsilon is the largest Greek social fraternity in the world, consisting of more than 160 active chapters. Delta Kappa Chapter was installed on the High Point College campus in 1954.

Tau Kappa Epsilon seeks to develop manhood among its members, and to foster the growth of personality and social adjustment in those areas not included in the academic program of the college. The fraternity places emphasis upon the fields of scholarship, social life, athletics, and campus leadership. A strong bond of brotherhood exists among the Tekes, and the fraternity offers each of its members a sense of belonging, a home away from home, during his college years.

The 1958-59 and 1959-60 school years ranked high on the TKE calendar of achievements. In 1958-59, the Tekes captured first place basketball free throw, softball, horseshoe, and tennis. In 1959-60, the Teke football team captured the championship in the Fraternity League and the All-Campus Trophy.

Many Tekes were campus leaders during the present year. Ray Sheppard was vice-president of the Student Congress and president of the Student Government Association. Gilbert Beeson served as president of National Kappa Chi, a ministerial fraternity, and a member of the Order of the Lighted Lamp. Tommy Skidmore was head proctor for McCulloch Hall, and Donald Reber was elected a Junior Marshal. Tekes Joe Guzinski, Tommy Skidmore, and Zane Daniel represented the fraternity on the varsity basketball team, and Esserin Morris on the golf team.

The Tekes added a new sign to the front of the TKE section, and the High Point Graduate Chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon prospered during its second year of existence. New constitutional revisions strengthened the internal structure of the fraternity.

Tau Kappa Epsilon remains as a mans fraternity on the High Point Campus, and it strives to become a greater asset to the college, to its members, and to all members of the student body.

Frequently, the spirit and loyalty of the student body is measured by its support of college atheltics. This program included both intercollegiate competition and intramural sports. Every student may participate in some phase of athletics.

"Every Man is the builder of a temple, called his body."

John Bartlett

Cheerleaders on H.P.C. campus exist as an organized group holding weekly practices and meetings. There are eight regular cheerleaders and three alternates functioning under a set of rules made and adopted by the squad.

Each year the students body elects new cheerleaders and alternates to replace graduates or drop-outs from the previous year. The head cheerleader is elected by the regular cheerleaders.

The Squad primarily is in charge of leading cheers at home and away basketball games. Co-operating with the P.E. Depart-group is in charge of developing good sportsmanship among students, sponsoring pep rallies, cartering busses for away games, assisting the college at homecoming events and advertising for basketball games, and dances following home games.

This year the main project of the cheerleaders was raising money for a H.P.C. Purple Panther Costume to be worn at all basketball games.

"I don't ask for victory, I only ask for a clean game."

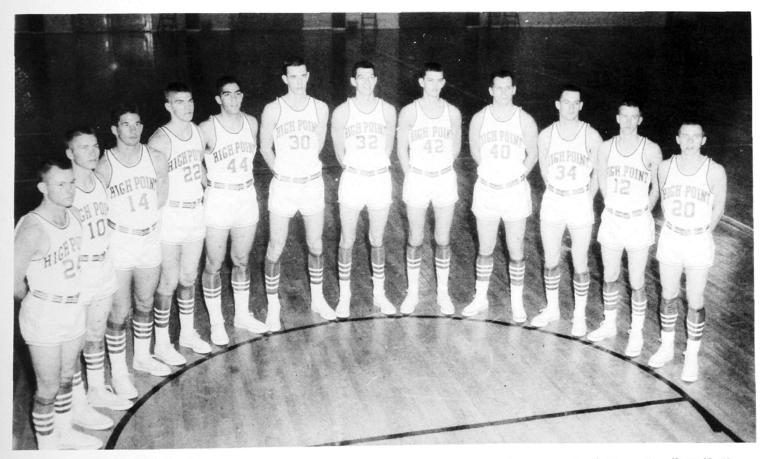

Coached by Virgil Yow, who was named to NAIA Basketball Hall of Fame, the High Point College Panthers finished third in the conference standing. Although the Panthers held first place all the season, Appalachian, having their best season in years, came out on top.

With a win over Western Carolina in the opening game of the tournament, High Point lost to Lenoir Rhyne in the semifinals.

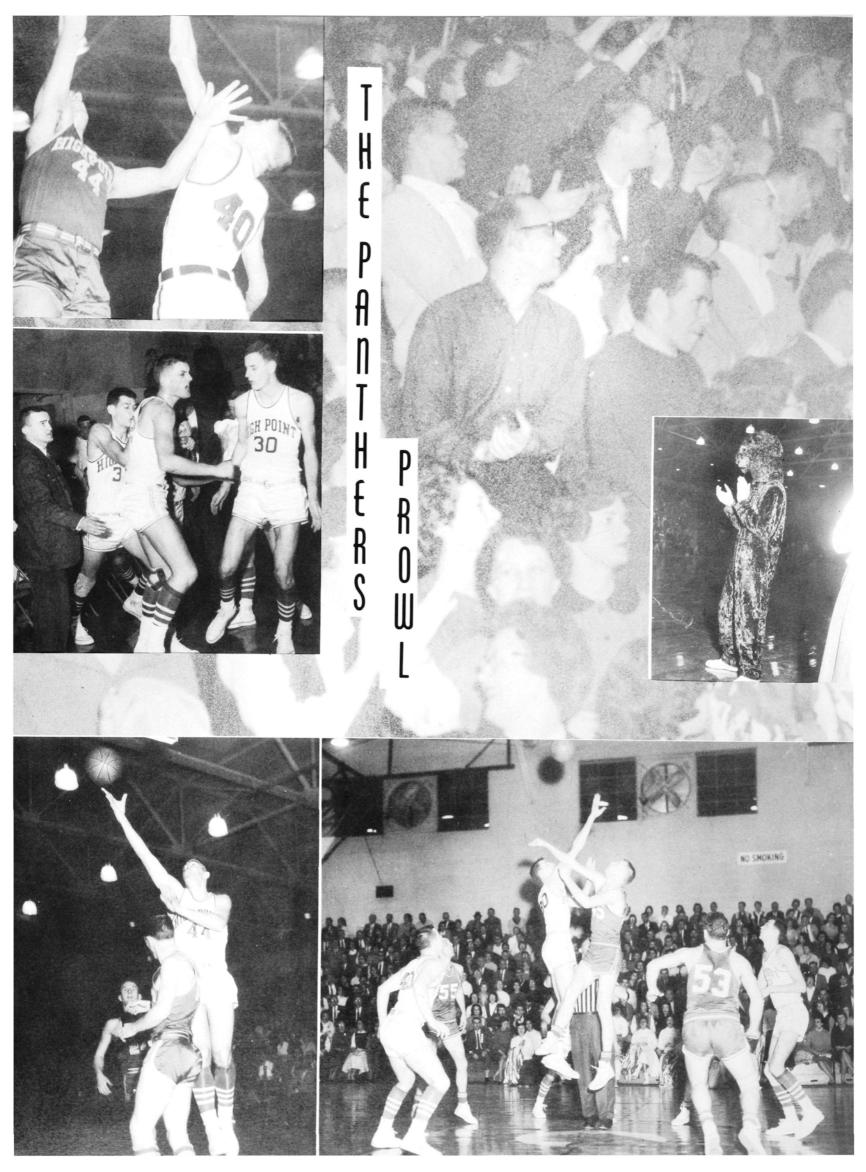

Danny Sewell, Little All American was named the Most Outstanding player in District 26. Without the sensational playing of Captain Sewell, and the graceful performance of Wayne Cheek, the squad will be hit hard by the graduation of three seniors, Sewell, Cheek, and Williard Formyduval.

Although the team will be hurting for height next season, Coach Yow has anticipation of many great performances led by Joe Guzinski and rising senior, Jack Short.

H.P.C. made a new step into the intercollegiate athletic ranks this year in putting out a wrestling team. The grapplers under the direction of Earnest Cooms made a futile effort to have a good year, but inexperience held the team back. Although they did not win a match they showed a very strong effort. In the next year or two High Point should advance to top ranks of wrestling. The men that are on the team should be commended for their effort. Interest in wrestling should reach a peak next year.

Tennis

Nine lettermen form a nucleus of our baseball team this year. Mr. Chuck Hartman, in his first year as head baseball coach, has rounded out a good squad for High Point this year. The Panthers whom Coach Hartman built this team around are; Charles McCorkle, Gilbert Buck, Sam White, Larry Nolan, Bob Boles, Darrell Smith, Ed

Hughs, and all-conference, all-district Joe Guzinski. The Panthers are expecting a good season this year. The team is in much better shape than any previous team. It is expected that Coach Hartman and the Purple Panthers are on the verge of becoming one of the leading powers in the North State Conference.

Cross Country

Congratulations are in store for our fine group of Harriers. They completed the season undefeated. They placed a close second to the strong Duke team in the N.C. State meet which was composed of teams such as; U.N.C., N.C. State, Wake Forest, Davidson and others. This was truly an astounding record for the Panthers in their first cross-country season. The boys that are responsible for this are; Captain Mickey Dean, Mike Sabino, Ray Murphy, Louis Farlow, Ken Sullivan, and Dick Vert. Coach Hertz is looking forward to a similar season next year because his only loss from this year's squad is senior Dick Vert. This team is surely a tribute to H.P.C.

COACH HERTZ

JACK WAGONER

This year the competition will be strong in track but Dr. Gil Hertz, Track Coach, hopes the stiff competition will make for better performances in the events this year. New opponents for this season are Furman University, Wake Forest College, and Presbyterian College. The highlights of the track season are the Piedmont relays at Furman University, High Point relays at High Point, and N.A.I.A. District 26 track meet at Salisbury.

Having suffered serious losses in key positions our track team experiences the same problem as in previous seasons—a lack of depth. Back to bolster the team from last year's squad are, Mickey Dean, conference half-mile champion and record holder who is undefeated after two years of competition; Jack Short our tremendous field event man, Tommy Skikmore, a good high jump man, and Pete Sturm, quarter-miler. New comers who are expected to bolster the team are Jack Wagoner, 440; Louis Farlow and Ken Sullivan mile and two mile; Bill Houston, who is probably the most versitale on the squad; Steve Bowers, Bill Shoals, Frand Johnston, Darrell Ward, and Zane Daniels. With this squad, how could you lose?

Men's ntramurals

Men's intramurals have come a long way this year. Interest in the program has become greater this year. Under the able leadership of Dr. Poole and Mickey Dean, the program has run smoothly. With the program about half through the THETH CHIS are in the lead of over all points. Several fraternities are running them a close second. Ability of fraternities in all sports is more equally distributed, and this always makes for a better program.

makes for a better program.

The TKES won football again this year. This was expected. The independent Jaybirds broke the three year domination of the PIKA'S in the basketball league. The THETA CHIS are new champions of volleyball. The minor sports are pretty will distributed between the fraternities.

All in all this has been a very good year for our intramural sports.

Winning teams in basketball and volleyball.

Golf

The Panther "Linkmen" are faced with a rough schedule again this year. The team has a new coach this year, Mr. Johnny Johnston. Coach Johnston is faced with a complete rebuilding program this year, but he has several good boys around whom he hopes to build the team. The Panthers should become top contenders in Conference play. Coach Johnston has previously coached at Wake Forest College and is currently Golf Professional at Blair Park. With this excellent coach and eager group of players, the "Linkmen" should have a fine season.

The ZENITH holds many enchanting memories for us. The loveliest of these are the thoughts of the charming girls of our campus. These young ladies deserve recognition for their poise and beauty just as the scholars merit for their intellect. So we bestow upon them crowns and titles and now we honor them in our Book of Memories.

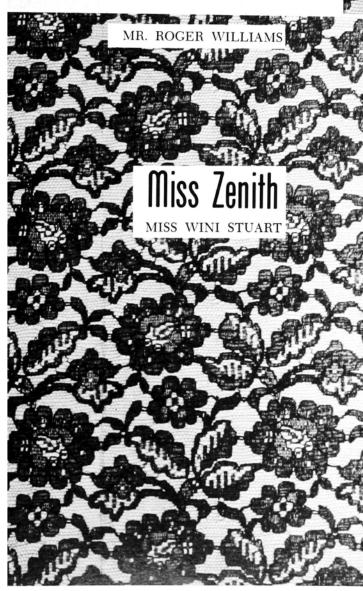

This year for the first time, MISS ZENITH will reign as queen of our yearbook. She was chosen from the Senior Class but graduation will not dim the regal thoughts of her. Also for the first time, each fraternity has selected a girl whom they wished to honor for her grace and beauty. Spring is known for glowing loveliness and so it is with our May Court. Our Queen of May was elected by the student body and her attendents by the individual classes. Homecoming is a fine time to introduce the alumni to our campus charmers. Each member of our ball club selects a sponsor and from these one is elected by the student body to reign over the Homecoming festivities. Miss North Carolina was present to pay tribute to the lovely one who was selected as queen of our campus. A colorful pagent preceeded her crowning as Miss HPC.

"The best part of beauty is that which no picture can express."

Miss Zenith of 1960 was chosen by ROGER WILLIAMS, the popular concert pianist of Iowa. The candidates were five senior girls—Maryette Brown, Peggy Davis, Sylvia Deaton, Anne Starr, and Wini Stuart—chosen by the Senior Class. These girls appeared with Mr. Williams on Television during his visit in Greensboro, where he made his decision and revealed it in writing to the Zenith Editor.

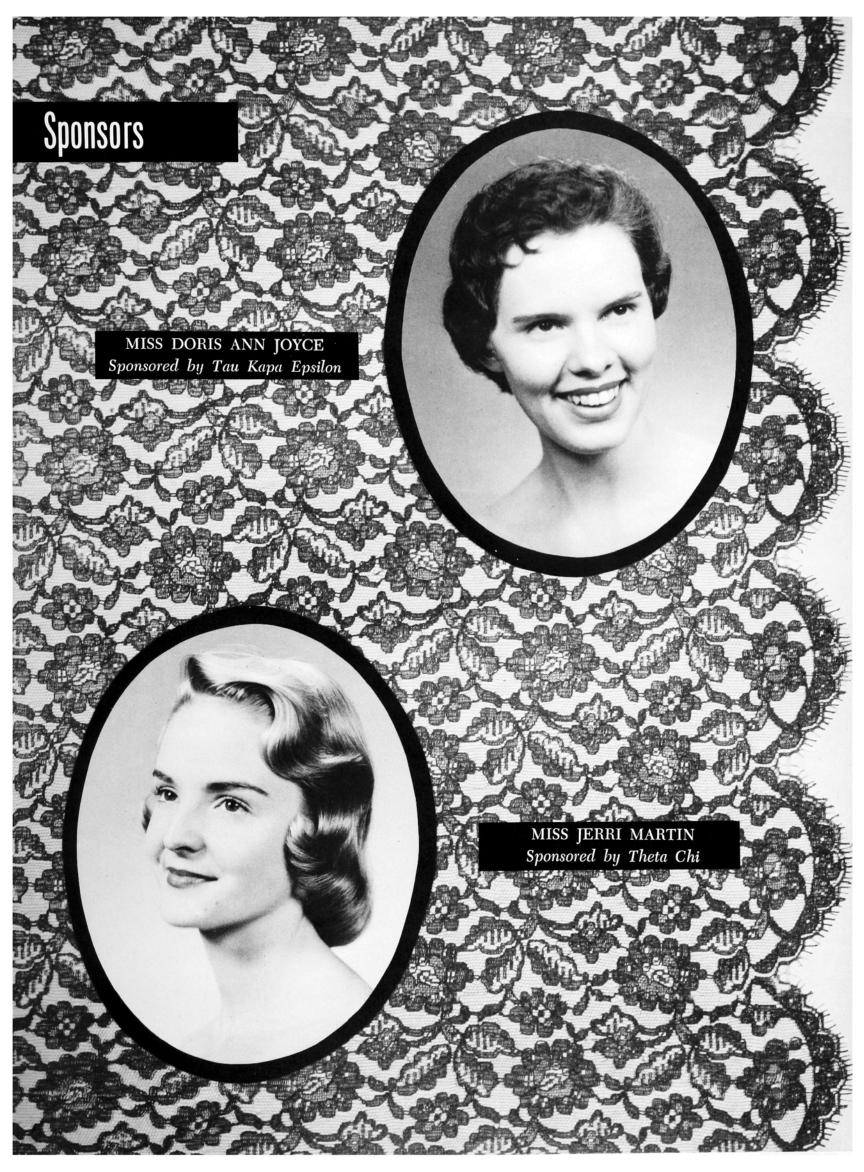

We are quite proud of each of these lovelies and we are honored to announce that MISS WINI STUART
